Activity

Conduct research at a research group in University of Michigan, UCLA, North Carolina State University, New York University, University of Washington, or University of Toronto.

How to find your host professor

You are supposed to find your own host professor at one of the partner universities. Go to the website and check out their research groups. >>> Before contacting them, please inquire in advance at JUACEP office

- Michigan Engineering, University of Michigan <https://www.engin.umich.edu/research/student-research/>
- Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science, UCLA <https://samueli.ucla.edu/>
- College of Engineering, North Carolina State University <https://www.engr.ncsu.edu/>
- Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering, Tandon School of Engineering, NYU <https://engineering.nyu.edu/academics/departments/mechanical-and-aerospace-engineering/people>
- College of Engineering, UW <https://www.engr.washington.edu/facultyfinder>
- Dept. Mechanical and Industrial Engineering, Faculty of Applied Science & Engineering, University of Toronto <https://www.engineering.utoronto.ca/>

Contacting the host professor

Once you have found research theme(s) in which you are interested, get in touch with the corresponding professor(s) and ask them if they accept you as a visiting graduate scholar. Remember that there are many students from all over the world who are willing to study as visiting scholars, thus it is very competitive. As such, we strongly recommend you prepare the documents which show the evidence of your research skills/knowledge/experience as much as possible. A recommendation letter from your supervisor at Nagoya University may help, or you may want to ask your supervisor to write an email at the first contact.

Important notes

- You are supposed to have obtained your host professor's acceptance of you by the deadline. We will NOT allow your participation if you have not got any positive response by the application deadline.
- Applicants who want to stay at UCLA must take account of the rule that one must present an evidence of financial support more than 130,000 yen/month from non-personal funds. Inquire at JUACEP office.
- Upon contacting, should use your Nagoya University e-mail account.
- When contacting a lab at NYU or UT, you should contact the coordinator first.
